

Breakout Session A 9:20 AM – 10:20 AM

What's in a Question

Alvin Le Blanc, Adult Reading Center

Teacher-student communication and queries that lead to big concepts that are part of HESE curriculum.

History and Literacy: Developing Skills to Understand the Past

Buck Cole, Texas General Land Office Archives

Learn skills necessary to understanding the past at a deeper level using historical documents and letters from the Texas GLO Archives.

Leadership Strategies for Orchestrating Change and Managing People

Tracy Hendrix, TRAIN PD @ TCALL

Leaders are faced with managing constant change and orchestrating how others in your program handle change as well as managing the staff you work with. How do you learn to navigate these often difficult topics?

From ESL Classroom to Career: Overview of the Global Scale of English

Dr. Glenda Rose & AnneMarie Molinari-Sanders, TRAIN PD @ TCALL

What level English do students need to get a specific career? How long will it take? In this session, we explore how the Global Scale of English answers these questions.

Meet WIOA goals with Real-World Content: Increasing Rigor to Prepare Learners for Academic Success

Laura Le Drean, National Geographic Learning

Join us as we demonstrate how great content empowers students with language, critical thinking, and academic skills.

Beyond Poverty and Trauma Beginning with Adult Literacy

Theresa Sands, TRAIN PD @ TCALL

How do we integrate literacy instruction that helps students overcome many challenges they face day-to-day? Come create a resource notebook!

GED Program Update: New Insights and Outcomes Research on Student Success

Brian Smith, GED Testing Service

This session will look at the GED program and provide insights to educators on how to best serve their students.

Hidden Resources for Literacy

Russlene Waukechon, Texas State Library and Archives Commission &

Rebecca Manley, Texas Center for the Book

Most Texas don't realize they have access to $119,843,545 worth of resources; walk away from this session with a enhanced literacy toolkit.